P. Garner last Monday bought the A. T. Shepherd property in Ironton at Trustee's Sale for $351.

Take your supper at the Academy of Music Thursday evening. You will get a splendid meal for 25 cents.

One hundred Boy's 5-cent Libraries, fifty Seaside Libraries and 100 Sheets of Music received at Jud Chambers.

Mrs. C. B. Isham is teaching a select school in one of the public school rooms, and will continue during vacation. She is said to be a good preceptress.

A day or two of seasonable weather in the latter part of last week was succeeded by a cooler, and now closed doors and warm stores are in order.

Don't forget the Ice Cream Festival and General Supper at the Academy of Music to-morrow (Thursday) night. Supper served at any time after six.

A readable letter from St. Paul, Minnesota, appears in this issue. We thank the writer, congratulate him on his returning health, and ask him to "call again."

A squealing pig under a horse's feet Monday caused a runaway and somewhat of a smashup of Lopez's delivery wagon. Nobody hurt, and the wagon repaired.

The Lotz farm was sold under deed of trust last Saturday. It was bought by the Lotz boys for $2000. It is one of the most valuable farms in Iron county.

The son of Jonathan Williams who was drowned a week ago last Sunday and of which we made mention, was found by his father floating in the river last Friday, a mile and a half below where drowned.

Miss Schneider opened a writing school in the public school building last Monday. She deserves a good patronage, for she fully understands the art and will make good penmen of all diligent scholars. Terms very reasonable.

Yesterday was Decoration Day, and was generally observed all over the Union. In this place, the post-office and land offices were closed, and that formed the sum total of the observance in the Valley, so far as we have heard.

The school enumeration of the Ironton School District discloses the fact that there are over 300 white juveniles entitled to the benefits of the laws in reference to free education. There are 67 of the nation's wards in the same category.

A protracted meeting began at Fort Hill last Saturday, and is now progressing, under charge of Rev. Wilson, P. E., assisted by Rev. J. C. Berryman and Hagan. Meeting every night this week, and prayer-meeting every afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Bellevue Collegiate Institute Commencement will begin on Thursday, 9th inst. The opening address will be delivered by Rev. J. E. Godbey, of St. Louis. Subject: "Faith." The attendance will be large from the surrounding country, including a liberal sprinkling from the Valley.

NORMAL SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.—The programme for the Commencement exercises at the State Normal School at Cape Girardeau this year is quite an elaborate one. Judge Emerson was invited, and has gone to deliver the Commencement address, in place of Gov. Crittenden who had to be absent in New York. The institution is said to be now in a highly prosperous condition.

From the Hub.

There is perhaps no tonic offered to the people that possesses as much real intrinsic value as the Hop Bitters. Just at this season of the year, when the stomach needs an appetizer, or the blood needs purifying, the cheapest and best remedy is Hop Bitters. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Don't wait until you are prostrated by a disease that may take months for you to recover in.—Boston Globe.

"Brick" Pomeroy is making his 8 page paper—Pomeroy's Great West—hotter, livelier, better and meaner than ever. He has made a big hit with it in Denver the wonderful city of Colorado, and appears to be spending much of the money he is making out of his mines on the paper. His Saturday Night Chapters are the best of its great features and opens up new fields for thought. His Parson Pomeroy's Sermons are red hot, and, if published in book form will outsell Bunyan's Pilgrim Progress, or the Innocents Abroad. How he dare print such sermons is a mystery but he does. But little that is going on escapes his attention. The mining interests of Colorado receives extra attention, as this great and profitable industry in that State is so rapidly looming up. Pomeroy's Great West is worth more than the price $2 a year, and if you wish something original, independent and very interesting, send for it. Address, MARK M. POMEROY, Denver, Colorado.

The Assembly at the Academy of Music last Saturday evening was well attended, notwithstanding the very inclement weather. Additional invitations will be issued this week to take in parties heretofore overlooked. No one who is not invited or has not heretofore received an invitation will be admitted. This rule will be imperatively enforced hereafter. The next Assembly will be given on Saturday evening, 10th inst. Admission per couple, 75 cents. Refreshments, extra.

Ed. Register.—Pray who is "H," the writer of "Courtesy and Culture." Now, my name begins with H, and as I am accused of writing for your journal—which, by-the-by, I regard as one of the best and most independent in Southeast Missouri—I should not like to be suspected of a paucity of alliterative ability, nor of the weakness entailed on one who indulges in "Courtesy and Culture" ad nauseam.

However, apart from all this, I must, in self-defense, say that although I gave Mr. Emerson a certificate at his own house, and desire of the value of his lecture, still I beg to be excused from fathering everything that comes from Poplar Bluff. W. J. H. PROSPECT HOUSE, Arcadia Valley, 25-5, '82.

The Pilot Knob Town government is in a tangle. At the April election, three new members of the Board of Trustees—Messrs. Kohlhaag, Thompson and Ahrens were elected, vice Messrs. Jaquith, Kahs, and Roden. Two old members, Davis and Ebreacht, were re-elected. These two latter, with Mr. Ahrens, refused to be qualified; but Kohlhaag and Thompson did qualify. They then went to one of the old members and told him they were ready to take their positions on the Board of Trustees. It appears, however, that the old Board had met in the meantime and organized, and when the two new members, Thompson and Kohlhaag, applied for admission they were informed that "the Board was full." There was considerable kicking by those interested in having the Board changed, and who had worked for that change in the late election. Mr. Killalee, considering that the present Board was not a legal Board, refused to pay the taxes they assessed against him, and still refuses. Therefore a suit at law will be held at Pilot Knob next Saturday, the full result of which will be duly given our readers. We shall have a reporter there.

PERSONALS.—Dr. Harvey and Mr. Vance came down from the Mountain, Saturday, and both called on the editor.

Mrs. Bakewell left last Friday morning on the Accommodation for St. Louis.

Mr. S. Whitehead made a trip to St. Louis Saturday, returning Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Moore and children returned Monday from a visit to relatives and friends in Fredericktown.

Mr. G. M. Palmer is in town on a visit to his family.

Mr. Tom Moore was in town last week.

Mrs. Laura Fox, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. T. R. Goulding, of this place, left last week for her home in Fredericktown.

Mr. Jas. C. Peck returned home the fore part of last week from Jerseyville, Ill., and left again Saturday for Poplar Bluff.

Arrivals at the Arcadia House for the week ending May 30th: O. F. Garrison, L. C. Vanduser, J. A. Dunlap, F. A. Barrett, Eugene Sterne, B. F. Myno, H. W. Keller, Miss Mary Soudard, Gen. John Turner, John J. Nelson, W. T. Lemaister, St. Louis; M. U. Demorost, Chicago.

There was quite a full attendance at the Clonlan last meeting. Miss Fannie Markham visited the society and joined in the discussion. The general question list included such subjects as the English Coat of Arms, St. George and the Dragon, Order of the Garter, Mottoes, Character of the Black Prince, Whittington and his cat, &c. All of which proved unusually entertaining. As a majority of the lady members of the Clonlan are busy housekeepers, as well as hard students, it was decided to take shorter lessons during the house-cleaning season. The following topics and questions will be discussed in addition to the unfinished subjects of last evening: St. Athanasius, Arianism, and the Great Schism. Name the Saxon and Danish kings, and relate some event connected with each region. Mention the next prominent characters in the "third period" previous to the Plantagenets. Who were the Cildes? What were the different modes of wearing the tonsure, and what the origin of it? What great pilgrimage was made to Rome in the year 1300? Where is the oldest copy of the Bible kept? On what occasion did an Archbishop of Canterbury take for his text "Vox populi, Vox Dei"? What is said of English commerce in the 14th century? Miss E. S. Delano who has so ably conducted the exercises, asked to be relieved and another leader was chosen. REPORTER.

In the St. Louis Jail.

Ed. Register.—A visit to the St. Louis jail will indeed amply repay the time expended. Having occasion to call upon a friend from Ironton, who was so unfortunate as to become a summer boarder by violating the revenue laws—through a fault of the head, but, I know, not of the heart—I was only too glad to get in (as no one is permitted inside unless on some necessary business). To my surprise, I found the above party looking remarkably well—a good indication of his innocence. He will be out this week, unless he voluntarily wishes to stay longer. He enjoys himself—although his associates may not be of the most desirable; he is well fed—orders from the restaurants any delicacy he may wish for; reads all the papers; smokes cigars—instead of making them; and, altogether, kills time as a man of wealth and leisure would naturally do were he confined to his room by a slight indisposition.

To the historic student the sight is really sublime, by comparing the ancient and modern modes of punishment; what great strides to civilization since the last century. In those times we had dark, dismal, close prisons, where bread-and-water was the only nourishment; where the lives of thousands upon thousands pined away, without a friend to cheer or a single human voice to offer encouragement. If, per chance, they were liberated, so emaciated were they that they lost most all resemblance to human beings, and their own relations did not recognize them.

We have now light, airy prisons, where smiling, healthy prisoners are the rule. What a change! But are we a moral people with our wise and humane laws? Is not crime on the increase? And do not those very laws defeat the end—the protection of property, the advancement of society? Is not our civilization too rapid?

Among the many prisoners at the jail, the one who interested me most was the "murderer Kring." His case has achieved such popularity that it is not necessary to state his whole history. He has spent seven years within the prison walls; thrice been sentenced to hang; and he now awaits his only chance of escape from the hangman—a decision from the Supreme Court of the United States. To the casual observer he looks more like the Superintendent of the jail or the Mayor of the city. Tall, erect, rather good looking, well dressed, and having the appearance of possessing education, intellect and refinement, and the last one who would be taken for a cold, relentless, murderer of a defenseless woman. But that slow and measured tread upon the hard pavement, his very gait, his manner, the extreme solitude depicted upon his face, his ostracizing himself from his companions, betrays at a glance his crime.

I left the prison, but could not efface from my racking brain the desolation—the amount of suffering—the intense worry of that unfortunate human being who stands upon one thread which seals his future.

Respectfully yours, GEO. LOPEZ.

In Memoriam.

Death has again visited our Lodge and taken from among us Brother Wm. TONG, who died on the 22d of May, 1882. Bro. Tong was born in the county of St. Genevieve, in the year 1815, and during his whole life a resident of Southeast Missouri, honored and respected for his unswerving character. He was honest and truthful in all things, a good citizen, a kind neighbor, an upright Mason, for 32 years a member of this Lodge, whose loss we deeply feel; therefore, Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Tong, the community has lost a good and useful citizen, the Lodge a faithful member, the family a true and faithful husband, a kind and indulgent father. Resolved, That the sympathy of this Lodge is hereby tendered to the surviving wife and family of our deceased brother in this the hour of their great affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions under the seal of the Lodge be forwarded by the Secretary to the bereaved family, and a copy furnished to IRON COUNTY REGISTER for publication.

Trip to Bellevue Valley.

Ed. Register.—On a recent trip to Cross Roads (Bellevue Valley) I found the crops looking well, with prospects for wheat better than I have seen it for years. I learned, however, that in some localities the army worm was destroying wheat and other crops. Calling at the farm of our old friend Dr. Moses Thomas, I found him as hospitable and active as ever—always ready to show his farm, which is one of the best in the valley, and which at present looks beautiful. The buildings and fences are all in good repair, fields nicely and conveniently divided, with elegant springs in each; crops all looking well—all of which gives the farm a most fascinating appearance. Although the Doctor is now more than three-score-and-ten years of age, his farm shows that he still possesses great energy and understands farming. This is one of the best stock farms in the county, and is susceptible of being divided into three smaller farms, with buildings on each.

My time was necessarily limited or I should have been glad to visit other farms and meet many more of my old friends, and shall try to do so soon. I did, however, meet our genial friend, W. R. Reed, of Cross Roads, who looked as though he was enjoying life. I also met our friend W. H. Buford, who recently bought a farm joining the town of Cross Roads, where he is busily at work. Mr. Lowe, Roadoverseer in that district, was found at his post repairing roads, not only overseeing, but making a full hand, and showing good judgment in the manner and permanency of his repairs. Mr. Alex. Reburn was seen at a distance, working in his cornfield; he is a good farmer. I was told he intended becoming a candidate for Assessor at the coming election. If such is the case, no more competent man can be found, as his record while Sheriff of Washington county and Commissioner on the organization of Iron county will testify.

I learned that the army worm has done great damage to the extensive fields of the Iron Mountain Company.

I hope to make a more extensive visit that portion of the county soon, and will take pleasure in giving your readers the benefit of my observations.
